"It should be somebody's duty to come to the rescue of the poor victims." His subject was: "Is It Any of Our Business?"

"The tiger is not all out of the human animal," said Dr. Locke. "The rich fools do not all die. The right use of a little ill gotten riches does not make the methods holy. Many men are burdened with their successes. DR. BROWN ON THE WAR.

As a Christian, Prefers Japanese to Russian Success.

The Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Brown preached yesterday morning at the Madison Square Presbyterian Church on the conflict in the Far East, considered with reference to Christianity. He took his text from Matthew xxiv, 14: "And this Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations." The doctor maintained that the chief significance of the present war is not military or political, but religious, and declared that, from the Christian point of view, the success of the Japanese arms was beyond all ques-tion preferable. He declared that Japan had advanced more in fifty years than Russia had in 500 years, and marshalled facts to prove that there was no such thing as freedom or enlightenment in Russia. He said, in part:

n Russia. He said, in part:

Only 25 per cent of the children in Russia attend school at a total per capita cost of eight cents for the whole empire a year for each child. In Japan 32 per cent of the children of school age attend school, at a cost of 34 cents per capita.

Japan has but 12 per cent of arable land and cannot feed her own people, and it is therefore of the utmost importance that her trade with the adjacent mainland shall not be destroyed by hostile possession. We in America talk about our Monroe Doctrine, and have served notice that we will fight to maintain it. Japan is simply fighting for her Monroe Doctrine.

will fight to maintain it. Japan is simply fighting for her Monroe Doctrine.

There are in Japan 59,000 adult baptized Christians, and 500,000 Christian adherents. I do not mean to say that Japan is Christian; far from it; but Christianity has taken a remarkable hold on the upper and educated classes. Men talk about the Yellow Peril. In the Far East men talk about the White Peril. And I submit that the real peril is not as to the color of a race, but as to the perpetuation of wrong, injustice and cruelty. Yet there is a vast deal of immorality in Japan, and there is urgent need for the spread of Christianity. They have tried to grasp the fruits of our civili-

MORRISANIA RECTOR INSTALLED.

Dr. Greer Officiates at Ceremonies at St. Paul's, in That District.

Before a congregation which filled the church, the ave., was yesterday installed as rector of St. Paul's jutor Bishop Greer conducted the ceremonies.

In his talk Bishop Greer said, among other things: In his talk Bishop Greer said, among other things:
As I entered the church this morning one of the first things my gaze rested upon was the letter of consecration issued to this church fifty-five years ago by the Bishop of Maryiand. Your church has a history to be proud of, and rightfully you are proud of it. But this is an age of pressing forward, and whatever you may have done in the past to hoast of or to regret should be forgotten, and you should start anew. This should be "Expectation Sunday" for you, in fact. You should look upon your new rector as a rector in every sense of the word. What he says should be law in the parish.

A letter from Bishop Potter, in which he ex-pressed his deep regret at being unable to attend, and congratulating both the church and Mr. Taylor, was read. There was also a special musical pro-gramme. A reception will be given for the new rector and his wife in the parish house Wednesday evening.

THREATEN STRIKE IN P. R. R. TUNNEL

Electrical Workers Say Non-Union Men Are Employed.

A general strike is threatened on the Pennsylvania tunnel to Long Island City because of a complaint by the Electrical Workers' Union that non-union men are employed at a low scale of wages in the turnel by the contractors, S. Pearsor & Son., Ltd. The union alleges that the men were imported from England.

A delegate of the House Shorers and Movers' Union asked the assistance of the Central Federated Union yesterday, after this complaint was made, to organize the men in the tunnel. The executive committee will investigate and report on Sunday.

C. F. U. VINDICATES MR. GOMPERS.

The controversy over the Civic Federation at the Central Federated Union is now believed to be officially at an end. President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, at the meeting of that body yesterday, was cleared from the charges made against him from time to time, especially in made against him from time to time, especially in connection with his membership in the Civic Federation. The vindication took the form of an indorsement of a resolution passed by Cigarmakers' Union No. 14. of which Mr. Gompers is a member. This declared that the union placed implicit confidence in the honesty and integrity of Mr. Gompers in all his dealings in the labor movement. Among the signers of the resolution is Morris Brown, a Socialist, who took part in the denunciation of labor members of the Civic Federation.

They Address Cigarmakers-Audience Cheers Them.

Cigarmakers' Union No. 13 was surprised yesterday while it was holding a meeting at the Harlem Terrace, No. 212 East Hith-st., by a visit from J. G. Phelps Stokes and his fiancée. Miss Rose Pastor, whom he first met as a working girl while she was helping in the University Settlement work. The announcement of the arrival of the visitors The announcement of the arrival of the visitors was made by Daniel S. Jacobs, who escorted them to the platform.

Miss Pastor was dressed in a silver gray walking costume, with an embroidered white shirt waist, and wore a walking hat of black cloth, trimmed with black velvet lace and roses. Mr. trimmed with black velvet lace and roses, are Jacobs explained that, being interested in labor subjects, and as Miss Pastor was a member of the Cigarmakers' Union, she and Mr. Stokes had simply made a friendly call.

Miss Pastor was asked to address the meeting, and smiling at Mr. Stokes, accepted the invitation.

and, smiling at Mr. Stokes, accepted the invitation. She was received with a storm of applause, and her voice trembled with emotion when she began to speak. There were a number of women cigarmakers in the audience, some of whom had worked with aliss Pastor.

"I was a cigarmaker in Cleveland, as you know, before I became a cigarmaker here," she said. "I am familiar with the conditions both in Cleveland and in New-York in the cigarmaking trade. In New-York I found that where there were large families the women and children had often to work, as well as the head of the family, to make anything like a comfortable living. I have found in one factory the father, mother, two daughters and the grandmother working together." daughters and the grandmother working together.
When Miss Pastor sat down there was a call for Mr. Stokes. He said he had been deeply stirred by the speech of Miss Pastor and her description of her efforts to make a living in Cleveland and New-York. "I believe that trade unionism is a good thing, he said. "I do not believe, however, in the quar reis among unions and among union men which I sometimes find. I believe in a spirit of charity be ing exercised by the union men not only toward one another, but toward their employers. There is no doubt that there is a great deal of injustice done to employes. I will do all I can to bring about a general acknowledgment of the wrongs existing in to employes. I will do all I can to bring about a general acknowledgment of the wrongs existing in society. He said he would make it a part of his duty to demonstrate the needlessness of the suffering that existed among employes. They needed more considerate treatment, in many cases, and there should be charity on both sides. His final remarks brought applause, especially from the women, who waved their handkerchiefs.

"I hope soon." he said, "to be able to carry on the work in the interest of humanity that I am now doing on a more extended scale, with the assistance of Miss Pastor, when she is my wife which, I hope, will be very soon. I am glad that she is a trade unionist."

An officer of the union made a motion that Mr. Stokes be made an honorary member. This was about to be carried, when one or two members said that the constitution of the Cigarmaker's international Union did not provide for honorary members. There was a brief consuitation among the officers, and it was then announced that preparations were being made by Second Vice-President Woods of the international union for introducing an amendment to the constitution providing for honorary members. Mr. Stokes was told that as soon as this amendment was carried he would be made the lirst honorary member of the Cigarmakers' international Union.

On behalf of himself and Miss Pastor Mr. Stokes thanked the meeting and Miss Pastor shook hands with all the members. At a rap from the chairman's gavel the audience stood up while the visitors passed out of the hall.

Van Buren Lumber Company Removes Obstruction to Navigation.

St. John, N. B., June 4.-Word was received from Edmundston, N. B., to-night that a portion of the Van Buren Lumber Company's boom in the St. John River, near St. Leonard's, where Canadian and American lumbermen became involved in a clash a week ago, has been taken up and swung in along the Canadian shore, allowing a free passage up and down the river. It is said that the Van Buren com-pany will anchor the boom so that navigation of the river will not be obstructed.

CAR LOST IN MEADOWS.

Merry Jaunt Through Jersey in the Early Morning Hours.

Early Morning Hours.

Striking evidence of the benevolent paternalism which the Public Service Corporation of New-Jersey exerts over its patrons was brought out early yesterday morning, when a car filled with passengers, bound from New-York to New-ark, wandered for nearly two hours around the Jersey Meadows. The motorman, apparently a "greenhorn," lost his way. Once he narrowly escaped running the car off a bridge into the Church. escaped running the car off a bridge into the Hackensack River. The passengers, at first good natured, lost their tempers, and threatened to tar and feather the motorman.

Car No. 198, of the Plank Road service, left the ferry at Jersey City at 1:45 a. m. Ordinarily it should have been at Broad and Market sts., Newark, at 2:30 a. m. Its cash register showed fifty-seven passengers, of whom from fifteen to twenty, many of them women, were standing. The motorman started off merrily, but after nearly half an hour's run came to Rev. Homer P. Taylor, for twelve years assistant rector of Holy Communion Church, 20th-st. and 6th-ferred with the conductor and a stray cartman. "Got lost," announced the conductor, finally.

> Back to Jersey City went the car, the motorman hunting at every cross route for the right way. Conductors and motormen of other cars seemed unable to direct the green man. Finally

When the car finally reached Newark, nearly an hour late, passengers overwhelmed an inspector with complaints. He seemed to think it was a

SEEK THREATENING LETTER WRITER.

Wealthy Men Said to Have Received Missives in Blackmail Scheme.

Because one of his clients has been receiving threatening letters signed by "Lewis Jarvis, Lock Box 1,604, New-York," and because he has reason to believe that other men of prominence in business in the city have received similar letters, Evan Shelby has advertised for the names and addresses of all such men, expecting in that way to get evidence against a New-Yorker, who is suspected of starting a blackmalling scheme on a large scale. District Attorney Jerome already has some of the letters sent by "Jarvis" to wealthy men, and it is understood that they are to be laid before the grand jury as soon as the identity of "Jarvis" can be proved.

While Mr. Shelby would give no information on the subject last evening at his home, in West 74th-st., it is understood that the letters sent by "Jarvis" are of such a character that if the identity of the writer can be established and the man can be caught, his conviction and imprisonment for attempted extortion may be expected. A man suspected of being the writer and sender of the letters is said to be well known in business circles.

"AUTO" SPILLS FAMILY.

Brooklyn Police Captain's Serio-Comic Encounter with Car.

Captain John Becker, of the Hamburg-ave, station, Brooklyn, and his wife and three children, while driving in Prospect Park yesterday after-noon, were thrown out when the horse shied at an automobile and ran the surrey into a tree. None of them were badly injured. Captain Becker is a large man and, with Mrs. Becker and the children, made a heavy load for the family horse, which has always had a reputation for steadiness. Everything went well until the family surrey was coming down from the three arch bridge. Suddenly a big automobile whisked by with a snort and a toot. The horse gave one jump, which landed the surrey against a tree and threw the Beckers on to the grass at the side of the road, where it was caught as it was walking away. The captain and his family went home in a trolley car

Wagon Driver Badly Hurt, but Machine Spins Merrily On.

Peter Olsen, of West Chester, was thrown out of his milk wagon and badly hurt early yesterday morning in front of No. 800 Courtlandt-ave., The Bronx, when his horse was frightened by an automobile. The car caused the horse to bolt and run several blocks, until it was stopped by a patrolman. Olsen was thrown out, striking on his head, and was picked up unconscious. An ambulance was called from Lebanon Hospital, and Dr. Aranow, who responded, said Olsen had a concussion of his brain. He is likely to recover. The automobile dashed on, regardless of the runaway, and there is no clew to the identity of the machine or its driver. The horse had to be shot.

THREATENS TO SHOOT "AUTO" DRIVER Desperate Chase for Flying Machine in

Crowded Lafayette Boulevard. Daniel C. Willoughby, a broker, of No. 2 West

38th-st., was arrested yesterday for speeding by Pa-trolman Giboney, of the West 152d-st. station. Mr. Willoughby, Charles Chambers, a lawyer, and two women were in the automobile. At Lafayette Boulevard and 158th-st. the automobile passed the policeman, he says, at the rate of twenty-seven miles an hour. Gibney chased the machine through the crowded street on his bicycle, and overtook it. With one hand on the side of the car, the poceman ordered Mr. Willoughby to stop. Instead, the lever was thrown forward another notch and the policeman's hold on the machine was broken. Giboney made a desperate spurt and, once more reaching the side of the automobile, shouted, "Stop or I'll shoot!" It stopped, and Giboney ordered the party to go slowly to the station. There Mr. Chambers gave $100 cash ball for his friend. The Boulevard was crowded at the time of the chase.

LOCKET REUNITES SWEETHEARTS.

Lover, Thought Dead at Spion Kop, Is Found Wounded on Mimic Battlefield.

An accident at the Boer War spectacle at Brighton Beach yesterday afternoon developed a romance that began in South Africa before the beginning of the Boer War. Miss Neille Van Dake, the daughter of a Boer infentry captain, who joined the Red Cross corps when her father went on the field, was engaged to John Vaye, a young Bloemfontein merchant. The young man served with the girl's father until the battle of Spion Kop, when he was counted among the dead. Before parting Miss Van Dake gave him a locket, in which was concealed a lock of hair.

After the Paardeberg battle scene yesterday afternoon Anthony Manje was found on the field with his left arm broken and suffering from possible internal injuries. When he was taken to the hospital tent, and his clothes removed, the locket was seen by Miss Van Dake. At the sight she fainted, and was in a delirious condition for several hours. Her father later saw the charm and recognized Manje as Vaye. ginning of the Boer War. Miss Nellie Van Dake,

MISTAKE KILLS BABY.

Wood Alcohol Instead of Lime Water Given for Illness.

Charles Hickey, seven months old, the only child of John Hickey, clerk to Justice McCall, of the Supreme Court, was killed yesterday. Wood alcohol was given the child by mistake, instead of lime water. Whether Abram P. Kerley, a druggist, of 102d-st., or a maid made the mistake Coroner Scholer says he cannot tell. Mrs. Hickey is the daughter of Thomas F. Byrnes, ex-Superintendent of Police.

The child had been slightly ill for some time. Dr. Thomas Kelley, of 357 West 57th-st., had prescribed a preparation in which there was lime water. To prepare the medicine a flame was needed for heating and Mrs. Hickey used wood alcohol for the flame, Mrs. Hickey's maid was sent to the drug store yesterday for lime water. The druggist says she told him she wanted wood alcohol. She says she asked for lime water. She got wood Mr. Hickey said he wished that neither the druggist nor the maid should suffer for the mistake. He asked the coroner not to have the druggist held and the coroner said he would not, as he saw no reason for doing so. The coroner said he could go no further until the inquest was held.

Plan of New Garden in Which Bishop Potter Is Interested.

Richard Henry Warren, who will conduct the orchestra at the summer garden at the St. Nicholas Rink, 66th-st. near Columbus-ave., which opens on June 15, refused last night to verify the report that Bishop Potter was financially interested in the new project. He said, however, that the Bishop was taking an active interest in the enterprise and would be present with Bishop Coadjutor David H. Greer on the opening night. Mr. Warren said further:

It is a mistake to refer to this enterprise as a beer garden. It is a summer garden. Bishop Potter is greatly interested in educating the public to appreciate high grade music. Here will be a chance to hear the best music by skilful musicians at a small cost. The programme will include popular, Wagner and symphony evenings, but "rag time" will be barred. The summer garden will be open the whole summer, regardless of financial success. Loudon G. Charlton, the manager for Duss last year, will be the executive head. Classical music will be a feature. This is not a new idea, but an attempt to revive the Central Park garden concerts of Theodore Thomas which were so popular thirty years ago.

Mr. Warren said there was no connection between the Subway Tavern of Bishop Potter and the new enterprise. Interested with Bishop Potter in the new venture are said to be Spencer Trask, Seth Low, G. Foster Peabody and the Rev. Ernest M.
